Subject: Background for ARSG Brainstorming Session

Greeting all –

Thank you once again for your willingness to participate in our Animas River Stakeholders Group (ARSG) Brainstorming session. We are meeting at CH2M Hill at 2:00 on Tuesday, April 1st, although we would appreciate if you could arrive by 1:30 – 1:45 so we can gather and be seated by 2:00. Below are directions to CH2M Hill's corporate headquarters and Jim Bush's cell phone number in case you have any problems. Attached is a map I sent out previously that shows CH2M Hill (Point A) and our dinner location (Point B).

Also attached:

A two page summary of characteristics of upper Cement Creek,

Some water quality data from the four main adits of concern,

An agenda for the brainstorming,

A list of participants (we added a couple of names since this was last sent out),

A topographical map of Cement Creek,

A two slide Power Point map of mine workings. The large complex of workings in the middle are the Sunnyside Mine. The red crosses are bulkheads.

While we are certainly interested in methods to address our issues in upper Cement Creek, we do not want to get bogged down in the particulars of this area. We are truly interested in innovative approaches that are cost-effective ways to address abandoned mines in a number of locations. This is an opportunity to explore ideas that you might not present at a conference because they have undergone little testing. We hope this will be a unique experience for you and that you will all get something from it.

Please let me know by Friday if you do not anticipate joining us for dinner after the brainstorming session. I need to give the restaurant a head count.

We look forward to seeing you all next week.

The CH2M Hill campus consists of four buildings, and is bounded on the west by I-25. , C-470/E-470 is to the north. The south three buildings of the campus are arranged in a “letter C” configuration in plan view. The fourth building is to the north of them. The destination is Conference Room West 1-D, in the West Building. This is the middle building of three forming the “C” configuration. The West Building entrance is on its west side. Parking areas are north, south, and west of the campus, with the best place to park being on the west, if space available.

Attendees will be met at the west entrance to the West Building by Trish Kerswill, Katie Atwater, Mike Winter, and/or me, and escorted to the conference room. There will be a sign-in sheet and stick-on name tags for attendees to write their names on.
